MAGELLANGUE

Language School and Cultural Tourism Office Magellangue Commitments

Learn: A necessity for those wishing to work or study in France and enhance their knowledge of the country's language and traditions.

Discover: France is a country where many civilisations and religions have left a multitude of legacies. The first revolution in the modern world took place in France.

Travel: The regions in the south that Magellangue will show you are landscapes where the watchful Mediterranean sun looks down.

Come aboard with Magellangue for a learning emersion experience where holidays, tourism, culture and language lessons merge in the south of France.

Language and Culture means recognising others. (Béatrice Biard)

The economy makes it necessary for us to get to know other people. Language is a necessity, and with the addition of culture, commercial exchanges are even more productive. Magellangue answers this need with a highly personalised approach.

We provide you with a setting where every moment is an opportunity to learn in real situations, while discovering the country: France and its regions with its cultural and linguistic traditions. You will be able to make progress in grammar while finding out more about civilisation!

Let Magellangue help you to become a curious, welcoming and talented person. Mix business with pleasure and organise your trip to meet your needs!

The language school is aimed at anyone wishing to learn French in France, whatever their nationality, age or level.

Much more than a language school, a cultural tourist office.
For individuals, groups and companies.

The innovative Magellangue concept

Themed packages with language classes to discover the culture of the Languedoc region. Your teacher will teach you French in a fun and lively style, and go with you on themed visits.

The Magellangue formula: French classes (FLE) and visit to Montpellier and the surrounding area

Alternating between classes in the morning (four-hour sessions), educational and cultural activities in the afternoon and themed day visits. From four to a maximum of sixteen people for a group of the same level, following a suggested schedule.

15-day Package

(13 nights 14 days): Arrival Sunday, departure Saturday. Classes in the morning, three themed visiting days, four educational and cultural activities in the afternoons.

8-day Package

(8 days, 7 nights): Arrival Sunday, departure Sunday. Classes in the morning, two themed visiting days, two educational and cultural activities.

5-day Package

(5 days, 4 nights): Arrival Wednesday, departure Sunday. Classes in the morning, one themed visiting day, one educational or cultural activity.

Magellangue will take you on a voyage of discovery into the country and the French language, sharing each experience with you. Enjoy the south of France with its cultural and linguistic traditions and its sun-soaked landscapes.

Other packages: in full board (or half-board) in a country gîte with classes at the accommodation of your dreams in a place chosen by Magellangue. Get away from the city.

Accommodation

Accommodation in Montpellier: in host families but there are numerous options for renting, hotel accommodation, apart-hotel, luxury hotel... you are free to choose, in full or half board, it's up to you.

Language Classes

For everyone, all levels, all nationalities.
Foreign language learning specialist.
